

Description

French language and culture course is designed to help students reaching a proper level in French language and cultural knowledge to integrate in their daily life and in the school, to prospect and find an internship and to work efficiently in a French environment.

Classes are divided in different groups to suit every level. The group levels are based on the Common European Framework of Reference for languages (CEFR) scale: A1 (Beginner level), A2 (Elementary level), B1/B2 (intermediate levels), B2-C1 (advanced level).

To validate the Master degree, students need to reach at least a B1 level.

Learning Objectives and Outcomes

A1 Breakthrough or beginner (CEFR)

- Understand and use familiar everyday expressions and very basic phrases aimed at the satisfaction of needs of a concrete type.
- Introduce him/herself and others and can ask and answer questions about personal details such as where he/she lives, people he/she knows and things he/she has.
- Interact in a simple way provided the other person talks slowly and clearly and is prepared to help.
